Give all children educational opportunities in the better environment equally.

Bell marks are being collected at many schools through PTA (Parent & Teacher Association) or community centers, and donated to schools in remote area or developing countries. The collected bell marks are sent to the foundation so as to change them to Japanese currencies like "1 label to 1 yen" and deposited there. Each school can purchase some equipment or educational materials with such fund and 10% of its purchase amount will be automatically used to a variety of educational supportive activities in remote area or developing counties mentioned above.

Donated to non-profitable organizations to support children whose parents were lost or cannot work.

A part of our sales of notebooks is donated to Japanese scholarship associations supporting children whose parents were lost or cannot work due to their physical disabilities. The associations offer a scholarship loan to students who are economically suffering from studying at high school, university or vocational school.

Our "Swing Logical Notebook" won the GOOD DESIGN AWARD 2015.
